

FIELD SITE INFORMATION FORM 10.01.06kmh

Dept of Counseling Texas A&M University-Commerce

Name of Site(s): Genesis Shelter for Battered Women

Mailing Address: Drawer G, Dallas, TX 75208

Physical Address(if different from mailing address): outreach office at 4411 Lemon St., Suite 201, Dallas, TX 75219 (separate from shelter).

Contact Person: Kristen Howell, Director of Clinical Services; Joanne Grant, Asst Director

Phone/Fax: 214.389.7713

Agency website: <http://www.genesisshelter.org>

Email: khowell@genesisshelter.org; jgrant@genesisshelter.org

=====
What populations are served & what types of services are provided to clients? Victims of violence; only women and children, no contact with perpetrators or abusers; ages 2 and up; transitional housing shelter and outreach services; counseling services – family counseling, adult counseling, sexual assault specialty groups, play therapy, parenting groups, expressive arts groups.

Typical counselor trainee activities at the field site? Individual and group counseling, psychoeducational groups, play therapy, specialty services – sexual assault & expressive arts; staff meetings and participation in treatment teams.

What workday hours are available? Are evening and/or weekend hours available for counselor trainees? Monday – Saturday, flexible hours, request 1 or 2 evenings a week and 1 weekend (Saturday) on site.

Specific or particular requirements of counselor trainees by the site? Prefer 2-semester (continuous) commitment; will discuss other arrangements; mandatory weekly meeting required on Fridays from 9-11am

What types of supervision would be available and what are the qualifications of potential field site supervisors? Weekly and group supervision; case presentations, participation as member of multidisciplinary team in weekly staffings. Supervisor reviews tapes.

Trainees are required to tape sessions regularly (video preferred, audio accepted). What accommodation for taping counseling sessions is available? Treatment rooms with cameras are available. Regular taping expected.